

Brian Morris - GSN Scholarship Fund General Guidelines

GENERAL ELIGIBILITY OF CANDIDATES

The Brian Morris-GSN Scholarship Fund shall be used to assist in the education of undergraduate and graduate students studying at an accredited university for a degree in the earth sciences and a demonstrated commitment to mineral deposit exploration or research.

There are no requirements regarding age, sex, citizenship, race or religion.

The amount of the next award (Fall Semester 2020) will be $1000 and will be awarded to up to two applicants. Subsequent annual awards will be based on additional scholarship fund growth and investment fund performance.

Any successful recipients will be assisted for a maximum period of two years.

All scholarship awards must meet the following criteria:

- All candidates must be full-time students studying at an accredited university for a degree in the earth sciences related to the mineral deposits and exploration and must maintain full-time status to receive this award.
- The candidate must be a member or student member in good standing of GSN (www.gsnv.org)
- The scholarship award money will be spent on field work or analytical costs related to the student's degree program or research, however consideration will also be given to students needing tuition support.

Candidates will submit an application that contains the following:

- Personal/contact Information on the attached page
- Current grade transcript
- One to two page statement of career goals and experience, interest in, or commitment to the minerals industry
- Reference letters from one professor and one work supervisor

All applications materials for this scholarship, accompanied by transcripts and supporting letters of recommendation must be received by the GSN Foundation by May 31, 2020. Applications may be delivered via e-mail or U.S. Mail to Cami Prens at camiprens@mda.com or c/o MDA/Respec 210 South Rock Blvd., Reno, NV 89502

The Brian Morris Scholarship evaluation committee may call the candidates for a brief interview. The scholarship funds will be awarded at the beginning of the 2020 Fall Semester.
